

Bluefire Terms of Service

Introduction

Welcome to Bluefire. By using Bluefire, you agree to comply with and be bound by the following Terms of Service. Please read them carefully.

License and Usage

License Sharing

- The license granted for Bluefire is non-transferable and nonshareable. You are not permitted to share your license with others.
- Sharing of the Bluefire .exe file, credentials, or any part of the software with others is strictly prohibited.
- Usage Restrictions
- You may not use Bluefire to exploit games that you own or on games of friends.
- Debugging, reverse engineering, cracking, or decompiling Bluefire is strictly prohibited.
- Using the software to spam on Roblox games to avoid potential fixes is strictly prohibited.

Prohibited Activities

- Resource Sharing: You are not permitted to distribute, share, or transfer the Bluefire software, including but not limited to the .exe file and access credentials, to any other individual or entity.
- Debugging and Reverse Engineering: Any attempt to debug, reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble Bluefire is prohibited.
- Spamming: The use of Bluefire to spam on Roblox games, with the intent to prevent potential fixes or exploits, is strictly forbidden.

Disclaimer of Liability

Bluefire is provided "as is," without warranty of any kind. By using this software, you acknowledge and agree that we are not responsible for how you or any third party utilize Bluefire. Any misuse or illegal activities conducted with this software are solely the responsibility of the user.

Enforcement

Failure to comply with these terms may result in:

- Immediate termination of your license and access to Bluefire.
- Legal action if necessary to enforce these terms and protect our rights.

Changes to Terms of Service

Bluefire reserves the right to modify these Terms of Service at any time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the updated terms on this page. Continued use of Bluefire after any changes constitutes acceptance of the new Terms of Service.
